WHY DIDN'T YOU GO?

I told you I was sick, so sick of you.
But you came even closer, I couldn't any longer stand you.

Why didn't you go before
I puked on your shoes?
Why didn't you go before
I puked on your shoes?

I threw up my breakfast, all my drinks, my dinner and lunch, it all fold' up neatly, all over your toes in a bunch.

Why didn't you go?

Why didn't you just go as I asked you when we'd last met?
You knew I had to vomit, because I'd already admitted that...

Why didn't you go?

Now you make this loud complaints about that smelly vomit stains, but, why didn't you go, when I at first had asked you to?

Why didn't you go?

SOMETIMES

Sometimes
I take a walk downtown and while I walk
most people make me frown
I can't believe just what I see:
what are all of them doing to me?

Most people are ugly, stupid, shit, decades ago I've had enough of it:
To watch them waste their breath of air more than enough for one to bear.

Sometimes

A lotta chix you'd prefer to see naked, but pleasure only can be faked:
Their style is worse than their skin could be then,
makes one wanna puke to finally see them.

Sometimes

Most guys look worse, but are easy to ignore whenever one turns in he turns out to be a bore.
Just let him be, what he can afford,
there is nothing as cool as some old discord.

Sometimes

NOT EVEN ME

Cute Ladies,
I'm stuck in between
like I was a stupid teen
which I ain't.

It's impossible to decide What might be wrong, What might be right Just got stuck in between like I was a stupid teen which I ain't.

I just wanna have some fun
without hurtin' anyone
not even me ...

Hey Ladies,
I'm stuck in between
like I was a stupid teen
which I ain't.

It's not that I do not care sometimes it's just too hard to bear still trying to be fair and by the way not to despair ...

I just wanna have some fun
without hurtin' anyone
not even me ...

Dear Ladies,
I'm stuck in between
like I was a stupid teen
which I ain't.

Look into those eyes around:
Was it really love I found?
It's often been my fears unbound,
where I saw my sorrow ground.

I just wanna have some fun
without hurtin' anyone
not even me ...
(Repeat 'til fade)

A SATISFIED MAN

my first one was an accident, me studying law in Southern Germany, being at odds with a fellow student who made me fucking angry:

we were then both alone in a lecture room when we heard a sudden sound -- and he turned away for a moment, so I beat him to the ground.

to face one of you directly
makes me happy again.
to cut through your throats
makes me a satisfied man.

he broke his neck on the counter and he fell dead to the floor, a big wave of enjoyment took me over like I've never felt before.

later I went into politics becoming one of the most powerful men:
it's much easier now getting my kicks being a handicapped rolling madman.

to face one of you directly
makes me happy again.
To break out your teeth
makes me a satisfied man.

sitting on my own in my home playing with your teeth in my pockets -- smiling at your skulls in the shelf with their black empty eye sockets -- chasing the night and the day -- my place is full of fellow politicians:

I tracked all of them down, one by one,
I never kill out of distance.

to face one of you directly
makes me happy again.
To rip out your hearts
makes me a satisfied man.

some decade ago I began slaying salesclerks -- spending my nights behind stores,
I developed my lifework, whose fruits I keep in my drawers.

worked my way up over traders to lawyers, my collection kept growing -- I began to move over to mayors but there's still one goal to get going.

to face one of you directly
makes me happy again.
to extinguish all of you
makes me a satisfied man.

to face all of you directly'll make me happy again.
to wipe all of you off the planet'll make me
the most satisfied man.

DID YOU HAVE YOUR FUN TODAY?

Did you have your fun today?
Thanx to the NRA.
Thanx to all the guns around.
They are where the trouble ground'.

You did you have your fun today.
Shot your pals and went "Hooray":
You liked that thudding sound,
When they all fell to the ground.

Blood all over
Ain't that fun?
Crimson stains
In the winter sun.

Focus with your AK 47
Blow your teachers brains to heaven
Get a grip on your M16
Shoot one or two of those stupid teens

Did you have your fun today?
Thanx to the NRA.
Thanx to all the guns around
Bring your trouble underground.

Blood all over
Ain't that fun?
Crimson stains
In the winter sun.

Did you have your fun today?
Thanx to the NRA.
Thanx to all the guns around.
They are where your trouble ground'.

You did you have your fun today.
Fulfilled your own cliché:
Looking forward to the final shot
And to the grave where you will rot.

Blood all over
Ain't that fun?
Crimson stains
In the winter sun.

ÜBER ALLES U.S.A.

I am Emperor Adolph Lousewart
You better believe me, we had a good start,
All the people know my name.

In my empire there's no smoking
Bet your ass that I ain't joking - It's such fun to count the lawyers checks.

This is Emperor Lousewart's voice,
Get the drift you got no choice
You're stuck in shit up to your necks.

Über Alles U.S.A.

You thought you've chosen health and welfare
Such a pity that I don't care -
I'll take more than anyone can bear.

Why are you scared before the war?
It already has been fun before:
My granddad shoved the German Nazis cash

I financed Osama Bin Laden's stash.
So calm down, you will be dead,
With an American bullet in your head.

Über Alles U.S.A.

All the blackmail and bribery
Is unavoidable, can't you see?
You deserve a wealthy government.

Saddam's kingdom was just a test,
The first proof that we're the best.
There's no cover left for anyone.

Since we got the NRA, the USA are safe today -
And as long as Charlton Heston stands, There'll be many more Clevelands.

Über Alles U.S.A.

SWEETEST ONE

all alone for some time
i hung around downtown, drinking lots of beer 'n' wine,
but never feeling low-down

no, just the contrary,
despite my expectations
at last, i was feeling free, exceeding all limitations

and then i saw her:

Oh, Sweetest One,
it could be such big fun,
if I dared to do
what my heart drives me to,
but I still don't
'cos I dunno what I want neither what to do.

once in a while
i felt a blonde's cute eyes the touch of her smile
which promised paradise

i smiled back at her
and we started to flirt followed the 'cri du coeur' forgot about the hurt

and then she came over:

Oh, Sweetest One...

ANOTHER PINT

i don't mind to be called defiant you might call me intractable, I never liked to be compliant - never ever be compatible.

never agreed with your clichés
 i knew i was stronger than the world while i witnessed your decay, from the begin you started being old.

1234 - let us have another pint, then we drink some more!

Getting married, driving a car being at work, never get too far, having a lover, get a divorce,
 whatever you do, you're used to remorse.

i don't mind to be called insurgent,
 life holds more than a bottle of gin:
 let's make it two and stop being ignorant,
 we are the flowers in your dustbin.

1234!

there's nothing more to do than empty a vat or two of some nice freshly brew
 the whole day through life itself's bad enough the times were always tough and we love to show off

 'cos enough is enough!

1234!

MONDO BIZARRO

It's been years ago
that I didn't know
How nice a padded cell might be.

In my own strait jacket,
I'm bound as a packet,
So glad they threw away the key.

Life had been so sad,
I just had to get mad -
To get out of this Mondo Bizarro

Life was so full of hate, no way to stay straight - and to endure this Mondo Bizarro.

Mondo Bizarro!

Backing up behind the wall, making myself very small,
Gluey spittle's dripping from my chin.

I don't fear nothing any more,
'cos that's what I'm here for,
But the worms still crawl under my skin.

The planet's got stuck deep in shit,
Now it's time for me to split - so I just left your Mondo Bizarro

Your world is on a blood spree, that's all just nonsense to me -
Go, enjoy your Mondo Bizarro.

Mondo Bizarro!

THE MERRY DEAD

it was dark when we awoke, as we've been lying in our tombs since we were the dead ones, these graves had been our homes

no one had had an idea
why these events took place to discover what happened
we had to get out in any case

unearth yourself, break your coffin lid!
smash your urn and climb out of it!
swing your bones and rock your head -
join our Gang of the Merry Dead!
join our Gang of the Merry Dead!

was it high taxes
or water pollution
a state of surveillance or another solution?

the dangers of smoke
or the risks of drinking?
or just a bad joke of which we can't be thinking?

unearth yourself, break your coffin lid!
smash your urn and climb out of it!
swing your bones and rock your head -
join our Gang of the Merry Dead!
join our Gang of the Merry Dead!

cruising all nite
round the cemetery
running down gothics makes us so happy!

we're corpses, dead bodies,
zombies 'n revenants,
doesn't matter at all
you can hear our shouts:

unearth yourself, break your coffin lid!
smash your urn and climb out of it!
swing your bones and rock your head -
join our Gang of the Merry Dead!
join our Gang of the Merry Dead!

CHAINSAW CHICK

i fell in love with you
at the very first glance
'though I knew at once our love
would never have a chance

with your big fat grin
in your beautiful face
with your chainsaw buzzing:
what a charming grace!

throw me to the floor
with your roaring saw,
with hurting bones
i fall for you!

my chainsaw chick, i love you so!
it makes me sick, when you're ready to go!
oh, chainsaw chick! oh,
chainsaw chick! oh, chainsaw chick!

you don't give a shit
'bout my inner feelings hurts more'n a bit when you leave me in a reeling -

the dark shades your eyes, your gaze is violence -
it pays to advertise,
and my heart breaks in silence.

in your big black boots
and a skull'n'bones T-, putting up your dukes,
you meet your own cliché!

my chainsaw chick!

i fell in love with you
at the very first glance
'though I knew at once our love
would never have a chance

with your big fat grin
in your beautiful face

with your chainsaw buzzing:
what a charming grace!

throw me to the floor
with your roaring saw,
with hurting bones
i fall for you!

my chainsaw chick! (2x)
